August 20-22, 2010

FUN! FUN! FUN!

- Friday evening: Dutch treat dinner at Jim’s Seafood Restaurant at 950 Wilkinson Blvd. We will order from the menu.
- Community Service Project: We will be bringing items for the children who participate in the King’s Center, a community center located in South Frankfort for underprivileged children.
- Saturday Lunch: We are hoping to hear from our own Teddy Gordon, who is an attorney from Louisville and Past Governor of the Kentucky-West Virginia District. Teddy won a case that went before the United States Supreme Court.
- Saturday afternoon: Presentation by MADD on how to identify ALCO-POPS, alcoholic energy drinks, wine coolers and other malt beverages that appeal to youth with sweet flavors that mask the taste of alcohol and are packaged to resemble non-alcoholic products. (Presented by local youth)
- Friday night at 8:30 PM: Executive Committee Meeting with emphasis on GROWTH
- Saturday morning: Past Governor’s Eye Opener: 7:30 AM
- Saturday morning: Business Session: 9:00 AM
- Training sessions for 2010-2011 District Officers and ALL club members

- Organized spouse activities
- Fundraising events for the OI Foundation.

Community Service Project
Kentucky West Virginia District Convention
August 20-22, 2010
Frankfort, Kentucky

As our Community Service Project for Convention in August we will be working with a local faith-based non-profit community center in Frankfort – The Kings Center. The Kings Center has been servicing Frankfort/Franklin County for 13 years and offers quality structured programming year-round for young people, ages 5 through 18. The Kings Center creates opportunities and hope for at-risk children and their families. There are currently 30-40 individuals who attend the Center’s after school programs. To learn more visit: www.kingscenter.org

The non-profit center depends on generous support from businesses and organizations in the community. All contributions benefit the children and families participating in the Kings Center program. Listed below are some items on the King’s Center “wish list.”
