

Miss KYWV Optimist District Beauty Pageant Contest Rules

1. Contestants must be of the male gender, dressed as females.
2. Contestants must have a "stage" name that typifies their personality.
3. Contestants will be judged in the following categories:
  - (a) Evening wear. This includes clothing, makeup, hair, jewelry and accessories. As each contestant "struts their stuff" before the judges, they are asked to select a musical number that complements their ensemble and their "stage" name. Bring a CD of your music (no longer than 3 minutes long) to the contest that is labeled with your name.
  - (b) Talent. This may be song, dance, acrobatics, magic, literary recitation, etc. The time limit for each act is 4 minutes.
  - (c) Interview. Questions on current events will be asked of each contestant. The time limit for answers is 2 minutes.
4. Judges for the contest will be all those who attend the 3rd Quarter Conference, who will vote for their favorite with contributions to the OI Foundation and the KYWV Scholarship Program. The contestant who collects the most money will be declared the winner.
5. Winners will be announced in the following order:
  - (a) Third Runner Up;
  - (b) Second Runner Up;
  - (c) First Runner Up;
  - (d) Winner of Miss KYWV Optimist 2010
6. The winner will receive the following:
  - (a) A lovely tiara;
  - (b) A sash that reads "Miss KYWV Optimist 2010";
  - (c) Flowers;
  - (d) Bragging rights.
  - (e) Seat at the head table at the Banquet during the District Convention in August.

Please remember to keep your costumes, acts and behavior appropriate for a mixed audience!
